

Political Gossip.

Philadelphia Know Nothing Convention which nominated Fillmore, but on the 8th of July a State Convention was held at Macon, which formally nominated Mr. Fillmore for the Presidency. At this Convention the Philadelphia platform was repudiated, and a new Southern platform was adopted, which was as follows:

resolutions were adopted, when, together with the other members of the committee, we went to Mr. Fillmore for acceptance and endorsement. At his accounts no answer had been received, and the Know-Nothing of Georgia were very uneasy. More trouble was brewing.

The Richmond Enquirer takes the result of the election as a basis of argument to prove that the Know-Nothing organizations in the field—but two political organizations, and the nigger driving party.

One of our Mississippi exchanges, in noticing the results of a democratic meeting in that State, writes that the Know-Nothing element there act that distinguished him in member of the gave in his experience and took his seat survivors. He said he had got of the platform

American party, but he didn't jump off, nor he did
He was standing erect, with his head lifted, and only he dropped through. He nobody pulled out tion plank on which he was standing, and ough the hole in it—that's Filmore vs Phil reform.

Fremont meeting was held in Passaic, New last Friday night, preliminary to the organiza-ment Constitutional Association, at which were thousand persons. The only set authoried, and even the old farmers, who seldom let of approval to any political cause, mingled most cheers with the universal expression in Pathfinder.

There is a political tract in circulation in the s, in which the author says:—

live in New York, next door to Coll-1 well. He invariably attends church Hughes' church in the forenoon in the afternoon. Two Sundays a they were coming home from church, a we were so drunk that they reeled at
of fence and knocked down three lengths thousands of votes, a thriving agricultural town, with 125,000 to 150,000 legal voters. Of these four are ; for Buchanan; all the rest are for Fremont and Lincoln.

Timothy Rives has tendered his resignation as the Presidential elector in the Second Congressional district of Virginia.

The Fillmore electoral ticket of Pennsylvania, composed of at least two men who are supporters of Fremont. These are G. W. Youngman, of the Fifth district, and N. Taylor, of the Seventh district. You will find in a Looming correspondent of the Pennsylvania Standard, that the names of these two gentlemen have been actively engaged in distributing the ers, and is well known in that region to be for the Republican candidate. The Doylestown Intelligencer reports that Taylor was a member of the Philadelphia and American National Convention which nominated Fremont whom he is an ardent supporter. There are also names on the ticket which seem, from the antecedents of the persons named, extremely unreliable for Fillmore. The democrats of the Second district of Michigan nominated ex Governor John S. Barry for Congress. The movement of the democrats in favor of Fremont is becoming an infection and is spreading all over the country. In McKean county, Pa., a voluntary has been made by the members of the democracy, resulting in a thorough Fremont organization in every township of the county. The democrats of Cleveland, Ohio, have also made a similar movement. They have got up and published a paper for the organization of a Democratic Fremont ticket, giving in detail the reasons why they cannot support a Republican ticket. The Cleveland Herald says that the signatures were confined to those who, up to the present time, have been identified with the democracy, and every man who signed cast his vote for Fremont. Still, the democratic candidate for Governor of

The call been for those who voted for Procter, the list might have embraced five hundred. According to the Register, the meeting is to be held at 10 o'clock, at the Court House, and will be addressed by W. Collins, lately a democratic member of Congress in Warren county, Pa., all the disaffected there have also gone over to Fremont, headed by C. B. Curtis, a democratic member of the last Congress.

The Fillmore men of Massachusetts will assemble in convention in Boston to-day. There will doubtless be attendance from the eastern and southern sections.

Brooklyn Court of Special Sessions.
Before Justice D. K. Smith.

THE GIRL KUCKUK AGAIN.
ro. 19.—It will be recalled that a few days ago a case tried before Judge Whiting appeared in the Herald, in which Frederick Munchausen and the complainants, and Mr. Rodolph Garrigue, one of the commissioners of Emigration, was defendant. The complainants, who kept a boarding house in New York, sought to recover possession of a girl named Cassius Kuckuk, whom they had previously passed off as a boy, but whom they now claim as their daughter. It appears that the poor girl had been seduced by one of the emigration agents, and that she had been in the orders and being in the family way was sent by her natural parents (if parents they are) to Ward's Island.

ing, after some 15 minutes, and Mr. Garrigue's wife, who had been in the youth center and smiling at her, she had been more pained at that than at her home. On the trial, Judge Whiting did not let the complainants, the paternity not being definitely established, and stated at the same time that he was glad not to be obliged to return the girl into custody.

Continued, however, not to be foiled in their purpose, and his wife went to Mr. Garrigue's office, in Brooklyn, on Tuesday last, the 12th inst., and brought the girl along with them, she was crying. On Monday, Mr. Garrigue appeared before Daniel K. Smith, of Brooklyn, and on his oath a warrant was granted for the arrest of Munchausen, on charges of kidnapping. Yesterday afternoon, the girl was taken to the police house, and an examination

—The evidence, so far as it has been taken, shows—

—Judolph Garrigue sworn—Lives on the corner of Hick and Hicks streets, in this city; am a Commissioner; know the defendant, Henry Munchausen; know him as a vagabond; she has been in my employ as a servant for some time; she was taken away from me on the 24th inst.; I paid her wages for her services; I think she is about 20 years of age on the 29th of this month; she informed me that she had no parents.

—John G. Carrig sworn—Am the wife of prosecutor; saw my defendant Munchausen on last Tuesday.

With test: was called by a servant and inquired of Caroline was spoken to by some gentleman; she then in front of my house with my child in her arms ereupon I went out and saw defendant and his wife on her side of Caroline, and both had my child in her arms presently with her. I then called her name and she answered what they said to her; I called her name to bring me the child; she made me no answer, an opportunity, from the manner and position in defendant and his wife had her; I called the third person defendant took the child from her arms and my arms, and then she called the name of Caroline I asked her name she replied she could not tell; I could not see; I am near sighted; I saw them at the corner, where they turned, and I saw the wife; I followed at a distance and saw them go

The further examination of the case was postponed until 10 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning. Muehauisen was committed to the custody of an await the result of the investigation.

between s. g. Ingomar, driven by Hiram Woodruff, and s. g. Wicked Billy, driven by James Wholsey. The horse won easily in two straight heats. The horse before starting was anything so nothing. The attention was small. The following is a summary:—
Monday, August 18.—Match, $300, two miles a side, at wagon.
Woodruff named s. g. Ingomar.....
James Wholsey named s. g. Wicked Billy.....
Time, 3:15.5—3:15.5.